

BLACK JACK TRAIL

a Backpacking Training Experience

BJT turned 50 in 2019

Let's continue the tradition!

Oct. 26 - 27, 2019 at QSR

- WHEN: Sat., October 26, beginning 9:00 a.m. to Sun., October 27, mid-afternoon
- WHERE: Quivira Scout Ranch – Indian Springs (watch for the BJT sign)
1781 Road 19, Sedan, KS 67361
- WHO: All Troop adult leaders and Troop officers in teams of two (example: Scoutmaster & Assistant Senior Patrol Leader as a camping team). Any team of Scouts as long as there is an equal number of an adult team. A minimum of two teams is required for a unit to participate to fulfill Youth Protection Requirements (two-deep leadership). Adult leaders will tent together; Scouts will tent together. Everyone should be prepared for a complete pack layout / shakedown.
- COST: $5.00 per person, payable on-site by cash or check (made out to: Quivira Council, BSA), which includes patch and materials for history of the land and Leave No Trace.
- PURPOSE: This is a basic backpack experience to show Troop leadership different places and ways to use QSR as a Troop program.

Black Jack Trail is an experience where the history of Quivira Scout Ranch is delved into and some backpacking is done into the heart of The Ranch leaving all big, fancy equipment behind. This is an opportunity for your Troop to go out with a minimum of equipment, have maximum fun, and use The Ranch to its fullest. There are endless program opportunities on our own Council Camp, and we urge every Troop to take advantage of them.

NO RESERVATIONS ARE NECESSARY. JUST SHOW UP!
