

THINGS TO DO...

GAMES! We highly encourage and hope that you bring your favorite game to introduce to new players or play with those who know it. This will make the free play zone fantastic. If you wish to put games in the game vault, please label it clearly inside and outside the box, on the top and on the bottom.

We WANT hundreds of choices.

COSTUME CONTEST! This will be a blast! Judges will consider creativity, conformity to lore, story, hero, etc. You may not use true weapons. Anything that looks like a weapon must be crafted from non-harmful materials. Be considerate of the PG-13 nature of the event. Costumes that are not PG-13 will not be allowed to compete. Otherwise, anything goes – BE YOUR FAVORITE WHATEVER IN THE GAMING OR COMIC WORLD!

TOURNAMENTS! Competition at beginner level and more advanced levels. Magic the Gathering, Chess, Checkers and probably some on-the-fly tournaments for popular fast games. Let us know when you register if you are signing up for tournaments.

This is an all-weather late fall camping event. It can either be lovely, or a rainy cold mess. Be Prepared! Think Trappers' Rendezvous but bring short sleeves just in case. If attending as an individual, please make sure that you are bringing your own tent and other camping supplies. Field uniforms are not required, however, are appreciated for the Scout's Own Service on Sunday morning.

For your ease of mind, we have built in safety measures, all of which have been approved by Health Professionals.

- Health Pre-Screen required for each person prior to check in.
- Isolation and sanitation station for shared objects
- Reduced capacity to accommodate physical distancing
- Maki are requested on game floors and at tables
- Increased sanitation measures between game rounds
